Registration will close on 31 December 2022

Jobs for JAGs is followed on Thursday, 12 January 2022, by a Department of Justice virtual job fair in the afternoon on Microsoft Teams (no registration required). Several DoJ divisions will talk about their missions, work environment, and potential opportunities.

Jobs for JAGs is sponsored by the Judge Advocates Association, the Judge Advocates General of the Army, Navy, Air Force, and Coast Guard, and the Staff Judge Advocate to the Commandant of the Marine Corps. Speakers and panelists are mostly retired or former judge advocates and the program is supported by The Judge Advocate General's Legal Center & School, U.S. Army. There will be the opportunity for questions by chat. Judge advocate leaders will open and close each day of the program.

Panels include:

- Perspectives of Human Resources and Career Services Professionals
- Resume writing
- Interviewing for success
- Job hunting in the Private Sector in Large and Small Law Firms and Corporations
- Job hunting in the Federal Government in Agencies and in Courts and Administrative Forums
- Job hunting in Academia, Associations, and State and Local Government

Registrants will have the opportunity to submit resumes for review and comment.

Whether you are retiring from military service, considering leaving the service after one or two tours, or just exploring your options, this is the premiere event for military attorneys transitioning to civilian life.

After registration closes, registrants will receive the agenda, panelist information (including contact information), log-ins for Jobs for JAGs and the DoJ job fair, and where to send resumes for review.
